

Summer Reading—English Department

- Students should read the following books by the beginning of the school year and be ready to take tests over the books during the first week of school. You read books for the grade you will enter.
- You are required to get your own books (you may borrow them from the library if you choose); be sure to read the unabridged edition. Be especially careful if you choose to listen to the books to listen to the unabridged edition.
- Students are required to read a selected book, and choose from the list for the remaining.
