FOREWORD

*To reflect the spirit of S. V. A.;
to bring back memories in years to come; to inspire those who in the future will live within these walls,
tread the same corridors, and partake of the same student joys which we have known, is the purpose of the staff in publishing this booklet.*

DEDICATION

TO

MRS. VICTOR H. CAMPBELL who has been our interested helper and teacher in all that we have endeavored to do as a class, we,
the Senior Class of '33, respectfully dedicate this annual.

MELVIN ECKENROTH

PENNSYLVANIA

Our president—just the man for the job. He's planning to be a minister, and we expect him to be a very successful one.

JOAN MEAD

MARYLAND

Jolly Joan. We all love her. As her violin pours forth beautiful music, so her disposition gladdens those about her. We're proud to say she is our Valedictorian.

NORA MACHLAN

MARYLAND

Just the kind of a girl you like to know. "Mac" is cheerful, friendly, and withal a mighty good sport.

NEVINS HARLAN

MARYLAND

"Nevy" is a tall brown-eyed lad with a deep bass voice which we all like to hear. When there's anything to be done, just call on Nevins.

DAVID ADAMS*
PENNSYLVANIA

David's name, like Demosthenes, begins with "D". He is our embryo orator. Success to you, Davy.

AUDREY BEEKMAN
MARYLAND

Just the way Audrey carries her head is enough to show anyone that she possesses grace and sweetness. Capable, studious and a good musician, we expect big things from her.

EUGENE FORD
OHIO

Plodding away, but always getting there,—that's "Gene." He's our artistic senior.

ELIZABETH SPALDING
MARYLAND

Tall, blonde and athletic, Betty is always ready for a good time. Betty says she's aiming to be a teacher—and a housewife!

WILLIAM ABBOTT*
VIRGINIA

"To hear him laugh makes you sing, and to hear him sing makes you laugh." "O Ledy, O Ledy," can't you hear him yodeling among the hills of Rileyville?

SUSAN HOTTENSTEIN
PENNSYLVANIA

Gloomy? Blue? Well, just look up Susan and soon the world will be rosy again. "To know her is to love her."

WALTER BAKER*
NEW JERSEY

Walter may be quiet, but he has a big heart. And does he try? He surely does.

LEILA WESTBERG*
MARYLAND

Petite describes Leila's physical make-up but not her mind. Leila intends to be a doctor.

*Additional Summer School work needed for college entrance.

You can be back at Shenandoah Valley Academy or at the Washington Missionary College next fall, even though times are hard, and you do not now have enough money to see your way through.

Year after year, many young men and women go to school "THE WATCHMAN Way." On this plan, twenty per cent of your school expenses—board, room and tuition—are paid for you free if you earn the rest of your expenses selling single copies or soliciting yearly subscriptions for the WATCHMAN.

NEW, LOW PRICE—A SELLING POINT

This year the WATCHMAN sells for only ten cents a copy. One girl, who has sold magazines to pay her school expenses in the past, writes:

"I just want to tell you how much I am enjoying selling THE WATCHMAN again. The new price certainly must have some effect on the sale. Last Thursday I sold fifty copies in three hours and fifteen minutes. Now it is real fun to hand them out."

YOU CAN EARN A SCHOLARSHIP TOO

Sit down right now and write for the special scholarship edition of THE WATCHMAN "Watch Tower" and complete information on how to start. There is not a single day to delay. Do it NOW!

A Wide Field of Opportunity — in —

TRAINING and SERVICE

Those seeking training will find in our Conference three of the finest training schools in the denomination; Washington Missionary College, Washington Sanitarium and Hospital, and Shenandoah Valley Academy.

Those seeking a field for colporteur work will find a diversified population of three million people in 20 cities and 100 counties.

Those seeking opportunity for evangelism will find in our field real virgin territory in both city and country.

Those seeking favorable climate in connection with wide opportunity for home missionary work will find many inviting spots in the mountains and plains of our historic Virginia.

Your Annual

THESE two words mean the concrete realization of the ideals of the Staff. It is easy for a professional to produce an exceptional year book, but not so with the average student. To him or her it is something new and means months of work. It is here that your printer can help you most by offering helpful suggestions and criticisms. To be able to do this he must have years of actual training in the printing of year books. We believe and feel that the staff of the Sbenandoah will agree with us when we say that we are artists in this work and are at all times more than willing to share your problems and help you solve them not to our advantage, but in the best interest of the school. Besides the Sbenandoah we printed the following books:
