GO WITH THE FLOW

Flowing from one moment to another
Shifting through all the changes
Finding new ways, yet
Among the chaos and the confusion
True, through the end,
God is with us and in us
Our Rock and Redeemer
The guiding direction in our lives
The hope in SVA

Student Life

Each student that goes to Shenandoah Valley Academy is quite unique and special. They come from all parts of the world—from as near as just across the street to as far away as Korea or Spain. With change and diversity all around, we must all learn to Go with the Flow.

DEDICATION

To J.J....

Let's go

"So you

"Whoa,
Baby! I

"Did I

name?"

...Because of your dedication to us.

J.J. (Baby) Henline came to our campus for the first time in 1969 from good ole West Virginia. Ever since then he has been Mr. Sports for SVA. By demonstrating a supportive and helpful attitude throughout his teaching career, along with that Southern gentleman's charm, he is truly an unforgettable faculty member. That charm is what makes J.J. so special whether it is joking with the students, singing his accapella country music or coaching the basketball team.

J.J. is always fun to be around. His charm, as well as the way he dresses, makes him unique. The funny thing about J.J. is that he will wear shorts to work even in below-zero temperatures. One of the rare times J.J. wears pants is when he gets dressed up in his V-neck sweater and Docker pants for a home basketball game.

As a coach he is simply the best. In his decades of coaching SVA's many varsity squads, J.J. has produced five teams that rivaled nationally ranked high schools. John Joseph Henline has also been the head sponsor of the student association here at SVA., organizing meetings, taking responsibility for certain tasks and spurring on more creative ideas. One might think that a man who teaches and participates in so many sports every day would be tired. Not so because luckily for us J.J. runs on Energizer batteries.

J.J., the yearbook staff of 1997, as well as the remainder of students and faculty of Shenandoah Valley Academy, would like to thank you for making the gym a great place to be and for teaching us the zeal of life and the joy of sports.

Fall picnics at SVA are always fun, exciting, and competitive for the most part. The picnic this year was different, somehow. No, it's not that the picnic wasn't fun or exciting, the main difference in this year's picnic was that it wasn't held on SVA's athletic field, as it usually is. Unfortunately, major flooding damaged our athletic field which is smartly located on a plane level with the Shenandoah River.

The morning of the picnic all of the students headed in busses to Stonewall Jackson High School for a day of picnicking. The track events started out first. Everyone was surprised to see how many running events the freshman girl Jacque Copenhaver could win in a row.

Next was the ever-tense softball games in which the only major surprise was the freshmen girls beating the junior girls in the semifinal game. To help keep all of the student athletes running, our faithful cafeteria man Bob Okenga provided a nutritious and palatable meal which included delicious watermelon.

After the oh-so-fun group events like rock-tree-bush, human chain, and tug-of-war, a super entertaining game of soccer was played. In this exciting match of world class athletes, the Stars soccer team went into battle versus the Tigers of Takoma Academy. Unfortunately, due to the concept of "points" sometimes used in sporting events, the Tigers came out on top by a score of 2-1.

At the end of the day the seniors came out on top. It is really too bad that some seniors were gone on exchange to miss this first and last time the class of 1997 wins the school picnic.

Fall Festival

LAUGHTER and FUN FLOWING TOGETHER

The Fall Festival, or barn party as it is more commonly known as here at SVA, was quite an enjoyable excursion. In addition to getting off school grounds for a while, the student body was able to entertain each other by dressing up and playing the age-old, fall games, like bobbing for apples, and throwing a wet sponge at Mr. Sigler.

The Student Association had the barn decorated, set up with food, and even managed to get a Live country-western band for us. They played some lively tunes, making some kids want to break off a little dance.

We had a song-singing contest in which the winning class won 300 candy bars. The seniors won, of course, and they got their hands on those scrumptious little treats.

After a few slow tunes by the country band, we all got off of the hay seats and made our way to the busses, and the evening filled with excitement and mystery came to a close as we journeyed back to SVA.

Letting the Friendship flow

Throughout this year, as you look back on it, probably some of your best memories will be memories that include your closest friends. High school is the true foundation of the rest of our lives. We learn of who we are and more importantly of what we want to become. We learn about life and love and how God is the common thread that brings all of this together.

Possibly one of God's greatest creations is one that is demonstrated frequently on the campus of Shenandoah Valley Academy, and that is friendship. Friends, those who cherish you. They are there through the good times, and they are even closer through the bad.

May we always remember the good times that we have spent together here at SVA. May we always be thankful for those who have helped us through it. May we always be bound together by one force, one love, that love being God.

Life Flows in the Dorm

Among the chaos and confusion of normal life and the building scholastic pressures, dorm life is a soothing balm to the problems and infection of social life. A cycle forms to the routine of classes, work, study, and sleep. With friends all around, you can easily settle down, finding that dorm life is what you make it out to be. It can be smooth and peaceful, energetic and eventful, etc..

Basically, it's like living with a hundred or more siblings and only one dad and mom to watch over you. But everything flows together by the end of the year, leaving you happy and ready to handle more if need be.

Jason King

Home away from Home

While things in the girls dorm may not be as chaotic as in the guys dorm, there still are certain stresses that come over all of us, but in Hadley Hall the atmosphere is warm. There are smiling faces all around, actually about 115 of them.

Mrs. Wolters, as well as the assistant deans and taskforce workers, truly do try to achieve an atmosphere that is somewhat like a "Home away from Home."

Though living in the dorm does call for a certain degree of adjustment, dorm life is where we learn such attributes as responsibility and individuality. And the dorm is a place where friends become sisters, and sisters become friends.

Norway

Norway was a very beautiful country with lots of mountains and fjords. The capitol of Norway is Oslo. In Oslo we were able to see a lot and learn a lot about the history of Norway. The major historical part of Norway has to do with "The Vikings." We visited a lot of historical sites and went touring a lot. Some of the places we got to go to were "Freia", which is a huge chocolate factory; we went to a naked statue, sculpture park.

Our stay in Norway was one we will never forget. All the memories and friends we made will be with us forever.

The school we stayed at in Norway--Tyrifjord Vireregaende Skole

Denmark

We first landed in Copenhagen on September 23, and by the time that we finally got to the school, we had been up for 45 hours. From the very beginning everyone was so friendly that we stayed up that evening even later just getting to know our new friends. There were quite a few Americans there, and all of the Danish people were eager for the opportunity to practice their English, so communication was not a problem.

As well as traveling extensively throughout Denmark we also were able to travel to other countries as well. We started off with a trip to Norway, where we were pleasantly surprised to meet up with both the Finnish and Swedish exchange students from SVA. Next we went to Germany and the Czech Republic with the sophomore class from our school. That was a very fun and informative experience. We ended our trip by flying to Sweden where we met up again with Tara and Nathan, and we spent our last ten days.

We learned so much, and we had so much fun in doing so. We are thankful for the memories and the experience.

Sweden

From the moment we landed until the time we took off, we had a blast. The first weekend there, we headed for Norway. We saw the harbor, Oslo Cathedral, and the sculpture garden.

The following week we turned towards Finland. We accompanied the Finish students to St. Petersburg, Russia. It was amazing; the buildings were absolutely beautiful. Once we returned to Sweden we took off to Stockholm. We were always on the move, from city to city, from country to country; the cultures were hard to miss. The entire trip was an experience. The traveling, the friends, and the memories will last forever.

Exchange. Just the word itself is full of special memories too numerous to recount. Foremost are the memories of new friends from Sweden and Finland, as well as Germany, memories of travels and memories of living in a country different from yet similar to our own.

We made road trips to Freiburg, Rothenburg, the Black Forest, and Heidelberg.

We gained so much from this trip. We learned a lot about ourselves and others. The friends we made will be friends for life, and the experience will remain with us through our memories forever.

In the city of Salzburg

Austria

After a safe arrival in Munich, Germany, we were taken to our host school, Bogenhofen, which is located in Northern Austria. After we had caught up with our sleep, we were out exploring the countryside. Salzburg was the first large city that we visited. Salzburg was where the movie "The Sound of Music" was filmed. There were many interesting things to see, much of which looked familiar (due to the movie).

Everywhere we looked our eyes fell upon the beauty of nature. One of the definite highlights for Nick and me was the day that we spent hiking the Alps. The view from the top was breathtaking and worth every painstaking step.

We also got to visit the Capital city of Austria, Vienna, with its beautiful cathedrals and buildings.

The friends that we met, along with the many memories that we made, will last a lifetime. Heather Flynn

Spain

Spain was an experience we will never forget. Never before have we been in a place so full of warmth. The people are friendly to everyone they meet. The scenery is gorgeous. There is nothing like watching the sunrise over the Mediterranean Sea. The attitude of the country seems to be "No pasa nada" which means, no worries. Everyone just wants to have fun. All you have to do is sit back, and you can't help but have fun along with them.

There are a few "Must Do's" if you go to Spain. You must try the authentic drink of Spain, "Orchatta". You must try the dish "puella". You will have no choice but to eat "Bocadillas" (sandwiches). And if you get the chance, scale a castle wall. -Jana Clem

Australia

Much to our delight we were chosen to spend six weeks in Australia. While we were there we were able to see many of the wonders of the great continent. Our first week we toured Sydney and Newcastle, and were also able to see Avondale. Next we saw all of the government establishments. Then we were off to Lilydale Academy, where we were greeted by Nick, Adrian, and Katrina (all former taskforce workers.)

We took part in so many activities, such as sleeping out in the bush, rafting down the Snowy River, and of course seeing the hut where "The Man from Snowy River" was filmed. We also made a lot of new friends that will never be forgotten. The weather was perfect; warm, sunny days and cool nights made the 21 hour flight seem well worth the while. We were also able to see some of Australia's famous surf beaches including Bell Beach and Manly Beach.

The privilege of being able to see this country was like a dream come true. We both loved it very much and intend to visit again someday. -Caroline White and Keith White

IMPORTS

Just as Shenandoah sent our illustrious foreign exchange students to eight other countries, an entire batch of illustrious students came to our school from those same eight countries. While SVA students were sad to see their good friends leave, the arrival of new, unfamiliar faces was exciting. Throughout the course of the month, however, these unfamiliar faces began to change. They became faces that we didn't want to see leave our campus.

While visiting the United States, these exchange students were lucky enough to engage in such activities such as touring D.C., shopping in American malls, and even a few of them were able to participate on our athletic teams.

At the end of the month, SVA students wanted our students back but we also wanted all the foreign students to stay. (So we're a little selfish).

PRAYER O 1996 CONFERENCE

R

There were about forty students from SVA that went to the 1996 Prayer Conference. It was held near the end of October at Mt. Vernon Academy in Ohio. There were several other schools there to join in the fun of getting a closer connection with God. The different school groups seemed to add different perspectives on their views of God and prayer.

Spring Valley Academy students were the ones who actually led out in the meetings, but it is too formal to call them "meetings". The activities were incredible, and there was not a moment of restlessness the entire time.

The very first night after their arrival, all of the students (which numbered almost 150) broke up into smaller groups and went on somewhat of a treasure hunt.

The main focus was prayer and how to really make it meaningful. The students left with more of an awareness of God's presence, not just a spiritual high, but a real feeling of the Holy Spirit.

As a result of this prayer conference, prayer groups started to meet every school night after supper.

CHRISTMAS

The Christmas Banquet on December 8, 1996, proved yet again to be another one of the historical nights in SVA's history of dating.

Couples strolled through the dimly lit halls of the boys dorm, gazing at the ornately decorated rooms. Then on to the cafeteria where musicians played, servers served, and couples enjoyed the fabulous SVA cuisine.

The theme of a metropolis covered in a fresh snow was the finishing touch that set the mood for the evening.

Nate, Briggs, and Mace go retro.

Aaron L. chillin' with his date Rachel B.

A family portrait.

BANQUET

Aileen S. is the only one who is used to romantic late nights.

Ed T. and Merrie R. take part in the old custom of making faces under the big snowflake.

The students then went from the cafeteria on to the Administration building for the entertainment of the evening. Sarah Axmaker was master of ceremonies, in which she let her true side shine.

Tobias Edlund, for one of his last times at SVA, showed his tremendous ability of playing the trumpet, while fellow taskforce worker and friend, Robert Lasarzewski accompanied him on guitar. Ivan Kim was added to the two in a later song for an extra special touch.

The evening ended with a showing of the movie "Forever Young", and for those who were lucky possibly even a goodnight kiss.

- Caroline White

Josh J's meal was too hot. Sarah A's was too cold, but Nick B's was just right.

Jennie,

We are so proud of you. Not only for your accomplishments but, more importantly, for the young lady you have become. You have always been a blessing to us. We are confident that you will succeed in whatever endeavor you undertake. There are two things we always want you to remember - - Christ is your example and the way home.

We love you,
Dad, Mom, and Maria

Dear Marta,

As you reach this milestone of Academy graduation, we want to honor you. You have given us so much joy, and we love you for being yourself. We also appreciate your efforts in school and work and enjoy your many and varied talents. We are especially thankful for your decision to follow Jesus, and we'll trust Him to guide and bless you on life's journey.

With all our love,
Papa and Mom

*Watching you grow,
during your life,
and just having you in our family has brought us more joy and pride and more happiness than you could ever know.
We hope you know how much you are cherished

Rupee:

You were most precious when you were born. Your smile brightened our day. Your spirit has always been cheerful. You made our life more fun. Watching you grow into the young lady that you are has made us very proud. Our special friendship is very dear to me. Your Daddy and I want the best that you can reach for to happen for you. Enjoy life and always take God with you wherever you go.

Love always,
Mom & Dad

Dear Rebecca,

You have done many things through the years to make us proud of you, but nothing could make us more proud than to see the wonderful, caring young lady that you have become, and to have you graduate from SVA!

We are happy that you love Jesus and count Him as your friend. Continue to keep Him first in your life. We love you very much!

Romeka, my daughter - my friend:

From the very first moment that I held you, I knew you wanted to soar freely.

The past 19 years have been filled with excitement observing your adventure.

Though I have not been a part of your soaring, whenever you paused and needed someone to listen, I have heard you.

Loud cheering and applause has accompanied your successes and large quantities of hugs and comfort your attempted successes.

Continue to spread your wings confidently Romeka.

This dance is yours and yours alone.

I look forward to celebrating your creative dance of life, at every invitation.

With love and caring,
Mom

Heather Mae

We know that others must see what we do - when you walk in a room the lights come on, when you hit the border of Florida the sun shines brighter. You have always been the sunshine in our lives. Here you are, graduating twenty years to the day after we did.

Sometimes it seems like you raised us instead of the other way around, but you grew up in spite of your youthful parents. You are our greatest accomplishment and the light of our lives.

Love,
Mommy and Daddy,
Austin, Granny, and all of the friends and family that love you so much.

Matthew Dwight Hawkins

We want you to know that we have always been very proud of you, especially so as we see you graduate this year.

Whatever direction your future life takes, we will always be there with our total love and support.

We thank the Lord for giving you to us. We love you very much.

Mom and Dad

Dear Amber,
Congratulations on your graduation. We are most proud of you!

Mom and Dad, your two Kuyas and Ate, do ask God's richest blessing upon you as you plan your future.

Dear Brian,

How do I express how proud I am of you? It has been so exciting watching the Holy Spirit working in your life! From your first steps I have prayed that you would be a child that God would use. Even through the painful years God never left us and now that you are leaving SVA I hope you never forget that. Always make God first in your life. I am proud, not only to call you my son, but my friend.

Best of Luck and God Speed.

Love Always, Mom

Dear Julia,

So often we wanted time to stand still so you could just stay our little girl. But we're so proud of the intelligent, confident, generous, and loving young woman you've become.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Dear Kelly (Our Baby Bucko!)

We are so proud of you. After eighteen years of watching you grow and mature into an intelligent, beautiful young woman, you are about to embark on a career through college and out into the adult world. It's more difficult than we realized to watch our baby girl flex her wings and leave the nest, but we hope our love and support will provide you with the tools to reach the goals you set for yourself. In our mind's eye we still hold and rock you to sleep, tuck you in at night and read your favorite books to you (over and over and over). We love you so much, and we never want you to forget that. We will always be there for you.

Love,
Dad, Mom & Bryan

Consider the possibilities

Experience small-town living near the nation's capital.

This is our campus

Located just a few miles north of Washington, D.C., there's plenty of green space in our neighborhood. CUC students enjoy dozens of monuments and more than 2,000 acres of parks and recreational areas. And after the school picnics and nature walks you can even watch a play at the Kennedy Center or visit a Smithsonian museum.

What's the advantage?

One way that CUC takes advantage of its excellent location is by providing students with real world employment opportunities at the same time they're earning their degrees. Through our Cooperative Education program, CUC students have worked at places that include:

- CIA
- The White House
- FBI
- Smithsonian Institute
- NASA
- National Institutes of Health
- IBM
- IRS
- SDA World Headquarters

The Report is in about PUC.

[And again, the News is great.]

For the third straight year, U.S. News & World Report ranked Pacific Union College in the top ten of liberal arts colleges in the western United States. Hey, that's not bad, considering they surveyed 1,422 accredited colleges.

We think the news is great. After all, U.S. News especially noted PUC's excellent academic reputation, faculty-to-student ratio, and overall value. That's success. Yet it confirms what we've always believed—that Christ-centered education and academic quality go hand in hand. And that's beyond success.
