SUMMER

OUTLOOK

BACK FROM SUMMER BREAK, THE DOORS AT SVA ARE OPEN AGAIN AND READY FOR A NEW YEAR.

AS FRIENDS WERE MADE, AND MEMORIES SHARED, THE SCHOOL YEAR OF 00-01 BROUGHT WITH IT HOPES AND JOYS FOR A LIFETIME.

"HOW LUCKY I AM TO HAVE SOMETHING THAT MAKES SAYING GOODBYE SO HARD,"
"DON'T CRY CAUSE IT'S OVER. SMILE BECAUSE IT'S HAPPENED."

7 DAY
FORECAST

SA. HAND SHAKE

Mary, Bobbi, and Rachel--new friendships become lasting ones.

SURPRISE!!

Marcus, Vincent, and Darin -- SVA's next NBA stars.

Where's Waldo?

LET THE YEAR BEGIN!!

THE FIRST WEEK OF SCHOOL. STUDY, FUN AND GAMES.

HOPES: I am hoping for a year of challenges and long lasting friendships. Having challenges everyday is what life is all about. Finding friends who you can trust is one of the most difficult challenges. SVA is where I am going to face these. I also hope to grow closer to God and to learn more about Him.

JOY: Knowing that I am in an Adventist school and having friends that share the same beliefs as me gives me joy.

HOPES: My hopes for SVA are to soon be up to date in technology. I am working to do this, and I can't wait. I believe the advances thus far are remarkable, but soon hopefully we will have classes over the internet. If we could do this then we could take more languages and more advanced of what we have. That is my hope.

JOY: The fact of knowing that we are making big steps in the direction of better tech. fills me with joy.

HOPES: As I start out my year, my hopes are that God be #1 in my life, and here at SVA. I hope to build true and real friendships with Him and those here. I want this to be a place where God is and where He can be seen. Once we have Jesus in our lives, everything else will come. I hope we will all be in Heaven very soon.

JOY: It brings me so much joy knowing we can all join Him in heaven. (Our God is an awesome God).

HOPES: I am hoping for a great time this year. I am looking forward to all the sports they have provided us and I am hoping to excel in every one of them. It's already the first week and I'm having a great time. This year is also a year I plan to get ready for college and my future. The main focus is that I would like to get a better relationship with God.

JOY: Friendships that you make here and the sports you can play. Those are the real things that bring me joy.

DO YOU REMEMBER THE FIRST TIME YOUR BEST FRIEND SMILED AT YOU OR YOUR FIRST KISS WITH THE PERSON YOU ADMIRED MOST?

HOW ABOUT THAT ONE TIME YOUR TEACHER LET YOU GET BY WITH A HALF DONE JOB OR WHEN THEY LET YOU LEAVE CLASS FOR PERSONAL REASONS.

HOW ABOUT WHEN YOUR PARENTS SENT YOU A CARE PACKAGE OR THE ENDLESS NIGHTS ON THE PHONE WITH THOSE STILL BACK AT HOME?

SVA CAN BE THE PLACE FOR YOU TO BECOME THE KIND OF PERSON THAT HAS MILLIONS OF STORIES TO TELL THE WORLD FROM BACK IN YOUR DAY.

ALMOST ANY THING GOES

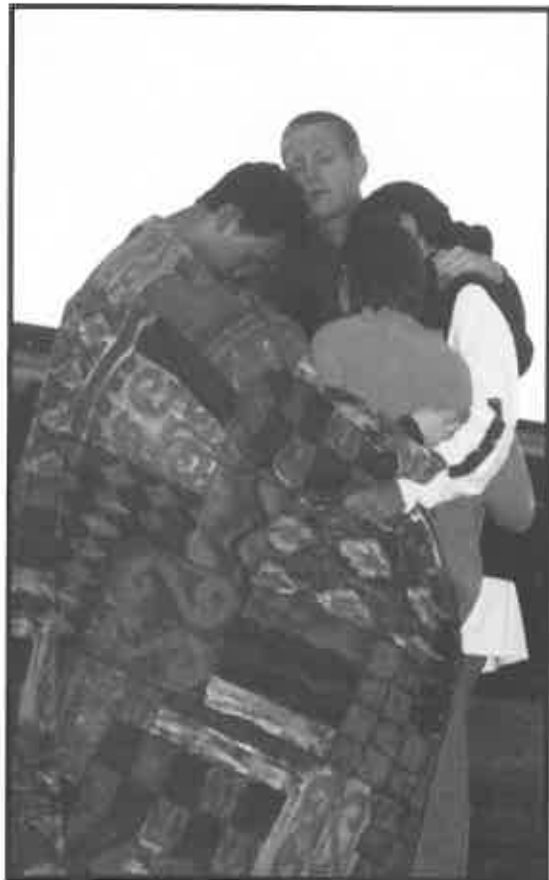

SEE YOU AT

THE POLE

WITH THE SUNRISE CAME A GATHERING OF STUDENTS AROUND THE FRONT CAMPUS FLAG POLE. PRAYERS WENT UP TO HEAVEN FOR THE SCHOOL, THE COUNTRY, AND THE WHOLE WORLD. THEN A PRE-BREAKFAST SNACK CONSISTING OF ROLLS AND HOT CHOCOLATE WAS AVAILABLE TO THOSE WHO SHOWED UP .

LEADERSHIP

THE STUDENT LEADERS WERE SENT OFF THE LEARN HOW TO LEAD. S.A., SENIOR OFFICERS, JUNIOR PRES., AND YEARBOOK EDITOR ALL PULLED TOGETHER TO REPRESENT OUR SCHOOL AND MAKE A DIFFERENCE FOR THIS PAST YEAR.....

We did it! We have just completed a big step in our lives together, and the next one, we may face alone. were we viewed by others as a good example? were we respected? did we respect ourselves? when you were a child, how did you imagine your life to be by the end of your senior year? what goals did you have, what did you dream? if you as a child could see what you are now, what would he or she see? would he or she be happy with what you have done with his or her life? would he or she cry that you let go of what he or she held dear. we have been through alot together, many happy memories, sad ones, and the best of times, never forget all of the things that you have learned while here at sva, most of it outside of the classroom. like how to be a tissue for the tears of a friend, or where to hide goodies, so there is still some left for you. how to sneak off campus, hand homework in a day late, and still get full credit for it. where every rope swing in the valley is, when the best time to get a pass signed, or who will sign the most passes. how to get on sick list without really being sick, and we learn to stay together, no matter what. remember each other. some of us may never come back to see each other again. It is now time to break up. to move on without the security of those we have grown so close to. Pray that our paths may meet again. Whatever has happened this past year; is over! Did it go as you hoped it would? Will next year? It's your life, make yourself proud.

I WOULD LIKE TO LET EVERYONE KNOW HOW MUCH THIS YEAR HAS MEANT TO ME. THE PEOPLE THAT HAVE BEEN A PART OF MY LIFE ARE THE GREATEST THINGS THAT GOD HAS GIVEN TO ME. WE MIGHT NOT KNOW EACH OTHER EVER AGAIN IN THE WAY WE HAVE WHILE HERE AT SVA, BUT NEVER WILL SO MANY DIFFERENT WONDERFUL PEOPLE BE SO CLOSE TO MY HEART AS YOU HERE ARE.

WHEN I SAY GOOD-BYE AND WE ALL GO OUR OWN WAYS, I KNOW I WILL CRY AND TIME FROM TIME THOUGHTOUT MY WHOLE LIFE I WILL LOOK BACK HERE AND REMEMBER YOUR FACES. NEVER FORGET EACH OTHER. SOMETIMES IT'S ALL YOU HAVE. GOD PUT YOU HERE FOR A REASON. AND I'M SO GLAD THAT HE HAD OUR PATHS MEET.

DEAN'S LIST BANQUET

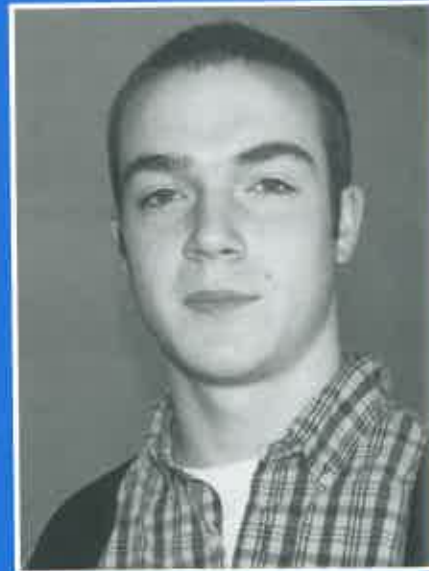

Just as I hoped the friends I have gained this year are definately going to be friends for life. Not only have they given me a great year, but also they have brought me closer to GOD. As well as this year has gone, I can't imagine what my senior year will be like. -Courtney McEowen

I think that this year our goals have pretty well been carried through. The only trouble with all the goals we had and still have is that there are too few of us and too little time to complete everything. The task of getting computers to every teacher was successful and our network is very well operational in the Administration Building. The guys' dorm now has access to the Internet and our network and the ESL building does. The girls' dorm is almost operational. I believe considering the amount of time we had to work on this we did fairly well at bringing my wishes to real life for SVA.--Matt Rickard

Seeing the smiles, hearing the laughter, and having fun with true friends is just a few ways I have seen God here at SVA this year. Every day is still a learning and growing experience with Him. It's wonderful to see how real Jesus is!--Shannon Smith

At the beginning of the year I said a few things that I had hoped to accomplish this year. So far I've done everthing I had expected to do. I've maintained great relationships with my old friends, and I have made lots of new friends. I have played all the sports here, and I feel that I have excelled in at least two out of three of them. Overall, I'm glad this year went the way it did because it was a great year.--Jared Bryan

ITS DONE.

Reflect on the year, remember the little things. If you could go back and re-live this year what would you do differently? If there is a friendship that you lost take the time to find it again, these friends that you have made here are a family. You will meet up again. Always cherish the time you have and make the best of it, because if you close your eyes for too long, one thing could get by you that could have made all the difference. never pine over or regret the mistakes that you couldn't help, they are in the past now, instead learn from them and move on.

ITS OVER.

God is good. As soon as you forget Him you have forgotten yourself. Never think for one moment that you are alive because of the air you breathe. Know that you are alive because of the air He gives. Don't you see that you aren't just here because your parents made you come? You are here because you can make a difference. So what are you going to do with that knowledge? What have you done with your time? What are you going to do with it?

CAN YOU BELIEVE IT?

It's true. This place is a world of its own. It's a soap opera and a home. We are a family. We know what goes on in each others lives because we see it. We eat together, sleep together, play together, learn together, and grow together. We show each other how to survive in the dorms and how to get through a teenage relationship that somehow seems more like a marriage. And we show each other how to love. This is SVA. And this year is over.

Eric -- We are very proud of your achievements at SVA. We thank the Lord for the growth and maturity you display. As you pursue life, focus on matters of importance remembering that "the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom."

Love, Mom and Dad

Hello Becky,
When GOD loaned you to us 19 years ago, we were a little overwhelmed. From the first moment we heard the doctor say "It's a girl!" we've been thrilled with you.

We were used to raising little boys. What would we do with a precious baby girl package? Though no frills or fluff were for you. You were a tough little thing and held your own with Ardie, Josh, and Steve. (They really love you, by the way, they just don't know it yet).

We've watched you grow from a little wanderer finding "collections" and building forts to a beautiful, adventurous, young woman, full of energy and life.

You have never been the norm, but that's what we appreciate in you. We admire your independence, your creativity in thought and in art, your enjoyment of life, your love for people and your devotion to Jesus, just to mention a few things. Of course, as proud parents, we could go on and on. We adored you from the beginning, and have excitedly anticipated each stage in your development. You make mistakes, then learn and grow from them. You make good decisions, and glean from them. We love you more than you can imagine.

Becky girl, God is using you everyday, and we know without a doubt that as you put your life into His hands that you are a BIG part of His Eternal Plan.

Thank you for your smile. Thank you for your cheerful, forgiving, positive, sassy, whitty, sweet nature. You are a treasure. We are proud of you. We are amazed by you. We love you with all our hearts. Now, as you make your plans to travel and explore and conquer the world, remember little bird your nest here at home waits for you, warm and comfortable, and full of love. Love, Chris and George (mom and Dad)

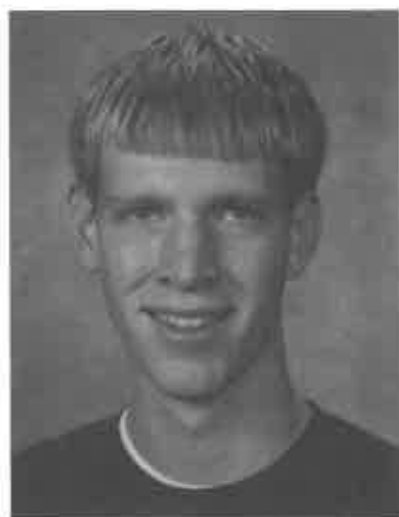

To Jared,
My smiley faced little boy, you have grown up so fast into a confident and loving young man that I am so very proud of. May God always direct your path. Congratulations!

Love,
Mom

Nikki Wuerstlin
Your whole family is very proud of you. You have excelled academically and athletically during your four years at SVA. We have seen you grow spiritually as well. Nikki you will never know how proud I am to have you as my daughter.

Dad

Kevin Eugene Andrew Jackson

Why we love you:
You make us laugh and your hugs are the best,
You make friends easily and you're loyal,
You're creative, artistic, athletic and intelligent,
Jesus is your friend and Heaven is your goal.

We love you because you're YOU!

XOXOXO

Dear Abby,

We all prayed for your arrival to complete our family. You came early and you have been running ever since. The early years now bring smiles to our memories, but back then you scared us many times as you grew. No one lived life to the fullest more than you! Taking a header into the fireplace ledge, tearing around the neighborhood on your bike, and skating off the patio stairs, into the air, and somehow not breaking your neck. Basketball, choir, violin, school projects, dates, banquets, plays, and loving to sing. And now, at last, graduation. Congratulations!!

The Lord placed within you a spirit that burns with energy, and a heart that cares and hears His voice. You see and feel things with a special intensity. He, and we, will always love you, and we thank God that you are ours.

Love,

YOUR OWN PERSONAL SQUAD-
RON OF GUARDIAN ANGELS,
YOU HAVE NEVER BEEN ALONE AND YOU NEVER WILL BE!

Joey,
As usual you did the unusual - shocking "your papa" by knowing your alphabet blocks at age one and a half, reading at age two and a half, and asking me those deep probing questions such as "Why is the moon following us?" Also charming the world with your charismatic smile and sunny disposition.

To sum it all up, here is a poem you wrote (I believe either in 3rd or 4th grade?).

"I giggle all the time,
so I wrote this poem that has a rhyme.

I giggle in the morning

I even giggle at noon,

also in the evening and underneath the moon."

Joey, we are so proud of you, and want you to know how happy your life has made our life. We love you and thank God for each additional moment He has allowed you to be in our lives. We pray for your continued success and most of all for your happiness in everything you do.

Love,

Your Family

Joey - "with apple cheeks", "cheeto ears", "my airplane in the sky and my ship in the ocean".
All my love forever, your Mom.

Dear Casey,
We remember when you were our little boy, an extension of our very being. Our every waking moment belonged to you.

One evening, when we called you to supper, you came to the table - all grown up. Where did all the in-between go?

Suddenly, we were to let you go - Now, we should always call you "My son", But.....in our hearts, you will always be.....our little boy. Thanks for being our son and we're very proud of you.

Love,
Mom & Dad

Far better it is to dare mighty things, to win glorious triumphs, even though checkered by failure, than to rank with those poor spirits who neither suffer much nor enjoy much, because they live in the gray twilight that knows neither victory nor defeat.

After each game, I not only ask myself whether I have played a good game, but also whether I've shown people that as Christian, I can play sports and exhibit the Christian attitude and demeanor that God would want me to.
